BOLSHEVIKS RESTORE PRIVATE CAPITALISM IN SOVIET RUSSIA

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THIS EFFECT MADE BY M. KAMENEFF, CABINET MEMBER

RAILROADS, METAL AND TEXTILE INDUSTRIES AND FUEL SUPPLIES EXCEPTED

By EDWARD HULLIGER, (United Press Staff Correspondent.) (Copyright 1921 by the United Press.)

Moscow, Sept. 23.—The government has decided to return to private capitalism of industries throughout Russia, save four—railroads and metallurgical, textile and fuel sources, M. Kameneff, head of the Moscow soviet and member of the bolshevik cabinet declared in an exclusive interview with the United Press today.

The complete scope of the soviet's new economic policy was revealed by Kameneff, who declared Russia is on the eve of national reorganization of a most sweeping character which will restore large parts of capital machinery abolished in the revolution of 1917. Kameneff, who was formerly Russian trade representative in London and now one of the real powers in the bolshevik government, told in simple English the story of Russia's realization that communism could not be obtained at a single bound and of the determination of the present government to completely reorganize Russia's national and industrial life and to make way for capitalism.

A small man with a long flowing brown beard Kameneff is not the fiery figure of Lenin but he will exercise almost equal power when the new regime is in force.

Private banking is to be restored in Russia but on a cooperative basis Kameneff said. "The national bank of Russia will operate within a few days with a charter identical with that of the bank of France. It will resemble the national banks of the United States. Free financial intercourse with foreign nations will be permitted."

REORGANIZATION OF GOVT. DEPARTMENTS

WILL SOON BE TAKEN UP PERSONALLY BY PRESIDENT IT IS REPORTED

By RAYMOND CLAPPER, (Staff Correspondent United Press)

Washington, Sept. 23.—President Harding soon will take up personally the task of reorganizing the government departments.

The purpose of the plan is to bring more economy and efficiency. A complete plan involving abolishment of some cabinet jobs and creation of new ones will be placed in his hands shortly by Walter F. Brown, the president's representative on the congressional reorganization committee.

After Harding goes over the plan, said Brown, it will be laid before the cabinet for discussion. After revision the plan will be sent to congress where alterations of an extensive nature are anticipated.

Major proposals of Brown are said to be:

Creation of an executive secretary who would be virtually an assistant to the president, relieving both the president and his secretary of routine work.

Creation of a department of national defense to combine the army and navy.

Transfer of the prohibition enforcement division from the treasury department to the department of justice.

Abolition of the department of labor and assimilation of most of its functioning to the department of public welfare.

Young Girl Issues Several Forged Checks on Father

Fargo, Sept. 23.—Ellen Johnson, 22, of Duluth, confessed to police today that she forged $300 worth of checks on her father, P. L. Johnson, Duluth contractor. She gave herself up to police when penniless. The Duluth deputies were to take her back home. She left Duluth August 20.

SHIPWRECK REPORTED ON SOUTH ATLANTIC

(By United Press.)

New York, Sept. 23.—First word of a shipwreck on the Atlantic on a southern steamship line was received today in a wireless from the steamer Cabocrex that it was bringing in thirty survivors. Captain Juan Zalvidea, of the Cabocrex, enroute here from Seville, sent the following radio:

"Will arrive Sunday 25, with 30 shipwrecked victims."

The Ybrra line, owner of the ship, immediately wired for more details.

Terrific storms lashed the Atlantic this week severely buffeting the big liners. The ship which was lost probably was downed in this hurricane.

Western Republicans are Dissatisfied with Lodge Leadership

By L. C. MARTIN, (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Sept. 23.—Senator Lodge is to be given one "last chance" to prove himself an effective leader of the republican majority in the senate, a number of determined western and middle western republicans have decided.

If Lodge fails to pass the test, reorganization of the present leadership is certain, these senators declared. This reorganization would rob Lodge of everything but the courtesy title of leader.

The test Lodge must pass according to dissatisfied senators, is a speedy disposition of the administration's important legislative program including the treaty of peace, the tax and tariff bills and the railroad refunding bill.

If any change in leadership is made it probably will be about the time Lodge is forced to relinquish some of the senate duties to devote his attention to the disarmament conference.

Dissatisfied senators think the leadership reorganization is inevitable if public business is to be attended to promptly.

Assess Taxes Against Owners of Liquor and Then Prosecute Them

(By United Press)

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Millions of dollars in taxes will be assessed against owners of contraband liquor after which prosecution will follow, it was learned here today. Internal revenue taxes on liquor have never been repealed.

The flying squadron of twenty federal agents that mopped up New York, Indianapolis and Chicago was sent out from Washington to assess taxes and get evidence for prosecution, the United Press was reliably informed today.

The squadron is scheduled to mop up San Francisco next, it was said.

SAFE WITH JEWELS STOLEN IN MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis, Sept. 23.—A wall safe weighing 250 pounds and containing $5,000 worth of jewels was carried away from the home of Mrs. Lois Hardin by thieves last night. The same jewels were stolen by a negro several years ago but were recovered when the negro was captured.

STATE WILL PROVE ARBUCKLE COMMITTED ASSAULT

INHUMANLY ON MISS RAPPE, THE STATE ATTORNEY STATED TODAY AT HEARING

M. D. TRACY (United Press Staff Correspondent)

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—Evidence that Roscoe Arbuckle assaulted Miss Virginia Rappe in an inhuman manner causing injuries which resulted in her death, will be produced at his preliminary hearing on a murder charge today, District Attorney Brady announced.

Albert Semnacher, Miss Rappe's manager, and formerly Arbuckle's close friend, is expected to make this accusation on the witness stand. He will testify Brady said, that Arbuckle had taken the girl to his bedroom and tore off part of her clothing and then attacked her in such manner as to humiliate her and caused injuries from which she died a few days later.

Mrs. Bomina Maude Delmont, who swore to a murder complaint against Arbuckle and Miss Zey Prevon, show girl, also were summoned as witnesses today.

Miss Prevon was to be questioned concerning the details of the gin party that preceded the alleged assault on Miss Rappe. Mrs. Delmont will cover the same ground.

COMMUNISM BREAKS DOWN IN RUSIA

SOVIET REGIME, UNABLE TO MEET BURDENS, "PASSES BUCK" TO WORKERS

Moscow, Sept. 22.—Everywhere throughout Russia, the soviet government is unloading responsibilities it is unable to meet. Factory workers are being urged to obtain their own materials, run their own affairs and obtain their own food.

"De centralize; do it yourselves, and do not depend upon the central government for anything," is the burden of instructions sent broadcast by the government since domestic free trade was instituted and the new economic policy of the bolsheviks was declared. Provincial officials, labor unions, co-operative societies, and the famine relief committees are told the same thing.

Local Officials Told to Get Food M. Kalinin, chairman of the Russian general committee for famine relief, chose this admonition as the text of his speeches on his recent tour of the famine area. He berated local officials for turning their eyes toward Moscow, and urged them to go out and get food themselves, in districts where it was obtainable.

Departments are being reduced, and large numbers of men are being thrown out of employment. Those who have been receiving food have been placed on reduced rations, and workmen in nationalized factories are being paid in manufactured products or in money instead of food, so that the food responsibilities of the government may be lightened.

Breakdown Laid to War

It seems, however, that Russians, with the exception of the extreme communists, are pleased with the government's change of policy. General centralization of everything has proved disastrous for three years. Communists stoutly insist that the war and the blockade were wholly responsible for the breakdown of the communistic plans and are explaining that the new system is really modified communism, and not capitalism. It is impossible, however, to find peasants holding land who will admit the government owns the soil.

Apart from the ardent communists, there seems to be a general opinion that the scheme of granting concessions to operate industries is only camouflaged capitalism.

Test of New Gas Caused Explosion

Berlin, Sept. 23.—Compression tests on a new and secret gas being manufactured at the Oppau Aniline works here today were held responsible for the devastating explosion Wednesday which caused over 5,000 casualties and great destruction of property for miles around.

"DRASTIC" ACTION AGAINST COAL OPERATORS PREDICTED

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Sept. 23.—"Drastic" action against coal operators was predicted by Governor Preus today in a reply to complaints against high coal prices.

A petition signed by 350 Rock county citizens protesting against exorbitant prices charged for coal in that place were received. Coal sold at the mines for $5 and $7 a ton costs as much as $19.00 a ton in Luverne it was said. When citizens sought to buy coal at Pittsburgh for direct shipment to Minnesota a price of $15 at the mines was demanded the petition said.

"There is nothing the state can do," said Governor Preus. "I am in sympathy with any movement to control the activities of the coal producers, but the problem is really one for congress to solve. I am sure drastic federal action will be taken."

(By United Press)

Seattle, Sept. 23.—A plea for an immediate verdict of not guilty was expected to be made today by Attorney Lee Johnston, counsel for James E. Mahoney, accused of murdering his wife Kate Mahoney and throwing her into Lake Union here. Mrs. Mahoney who owned valuable property in Minnesota, was killed a few weeks after her marriage.

TREATIES REPORTED TO SENATE WITH ONE RESERVATION

BY A VOTE OF NINE TO ONE, SENATOR BORAH CASTING THE ONE VOTE

FRASER EDWARDS (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Sept. 23.—With one reservation attached, the senate foreign relations committee today reported to the senate for ratification the three new peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary. The vote of the committee was 9 to 1.

The reservation was designed to meet partially the objection against the new treaties by Senator Borah of Idaho. This concession did not satisfy the irreconcilable leader and he cast the only vote against reporting the new pacts.

Borah indicated that he will carry his fight to the senate floor.

The reservation is similar to that offered by Senator Lodge to the treaty of Versailles to prevent the appointment of an American representative on any international body set up under the treaty without the expressed consent of congress. It was offered by Senator Borah.

Two Reservations The new peace treaty with Germany, Austria and Hungary virtually amended by two reservations were placed before the senate today for ratification by the senate foreign relations committee.

Senator Borah who has made a determined fight against the treaties on the ground that they will involve the United States in European affairs, was the only committee member to vote against reporting the treaties to the senate. Three democrats voted for reporting the treaties, indicating that prompt action may be had in the senate, although Borah indicated he would carry his fight to the senate floor.

The first reservation adopted prohibits American membership on the reparation commission or any other international organization without the explicit consent of congress. This was offered by Senator Brandegee of Connecticut. The second reservation offered by Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, makes it certain that the property rights of American citizens and the federal government will not be jeopardized by the treaties.

The reporting of the treaty followed assurance from high administration officials that American troops in Germany will be withdrawn immediately following exchange of ratification of treaties with Germany.

STORK PAYS VISIT ON AUTOMOBILE TRIP

(By United Press.)

Marion, Ohio, Sept. 23.—Storks can travel faster than automobiles, Matt Jeffries of Columbus learned today.

Jeffries and his wife were motoring north of here today when the stork overtook them. The father erected a tent he was carrying in the car and the baby was born therein. The automobile trip will be continued as soon as Mrs. Jeffries' condition permits.

Six Persons are Charged With Criminal Carelessness

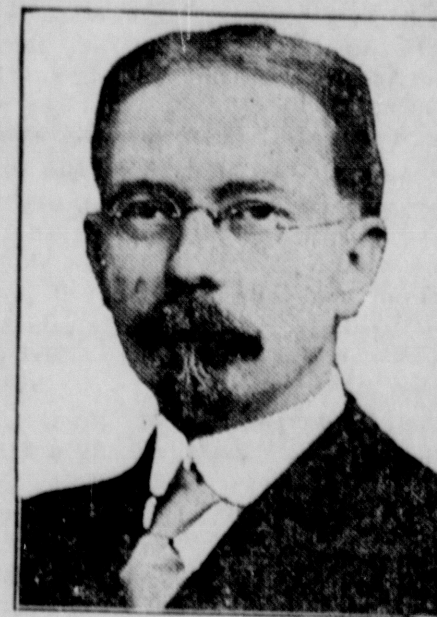

Hibbing, Minn., Sept. 23.—Criminal carelessness is the charge brought against six persons who started brush fires in this district with permits. The fires resulted in disaster, according to District Ranger D. L. McIntosh. No more permits for brush burning will be issued until snow flies, McIntosh warned. Farmers, however, who have tested fire breaks around their farms may secure permits.

Found Guilty of Murdering Kaber

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 23.—Salvatore Cala today was found guilty of the murder of Daniel Kaber wealthy Lakewood publisher. The jury recommended mercy.

Cala confessed to police that he held Kaber's hands while another hired assassin stabbed him twenty-four times. Mrs. Kaber is serving a life sentence for planning the murder. Cala will probably be sentenced to life imprisonment.

EIGHT PERSONS DROWN IN LAKE SUPERIOR

(By United Press)

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 23.—A camper arriving here last night told of the death of eight persons by drowning in Lake Superior when their sailboat capsized just above Sault Point ten days ago. The persons believed to have lost their lives are:

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis and two children, George Fiel and a small girl.

Adam Lewis whose parents are believed to have been on the ill-fated yacht, said he knew his parents were lost and that he was going to start searching for the bodies.

GIRL SWIMMER TO WED HER ULYSSES

BOATMAN AND DANISH AQUATIC EXPERT TAKE OUT MARRIAGE LICENSE

New York, Sept. 21.—Miss Mille Gade, the Danish girl who swam around Manhattan in June and from Albany to New York 10 days ago, is going to marry Ulysses of her trips, Clem Corson, the boatman who rowed alongside her every stroke of the 196 miles she swam this season. They have obtained the license for a ceremony to be performed today.

Miss Gade won fame in Denmark for her long distance swimming. She is 24 years old. Corson is a boatman at the Naval Militia headquarters. He gave his age as 37.

Neither member of the coming matrimonial team will divulge the romantic details of their courtship. Corson, however, vouched for the fact that it was romantic.

Miss Gade swam around Manhattan island on June 26, a distance of 43 miles, in 16 hours. She swam from Albany to New York in a week's time, finishing Sept. 8, the distance being 153 miles. Her only predecessor on the latter trip was a man who did it 25 years ago.

Ultimatum is Sent Hungry to Vacate Austrian Territory

(By United Press)

Paris, Sept. 23.—The allied ambassador council today sent an ultimatum to the Hungarian government directing the Hungarian troops to be withdrawn from Burgenland, the disputed territory on the Austrian border, within a few days.

Otherwise, the note says, "appropriate measures will be taken." Burgenland was recently ceded to Austria but Hungarian troops and civilians seized the territory and attacked Austria, causing an appeal to the allies by Austria.

WOMAN MURDERED IN GRAND FORKS

Grand Forks, Sept. 23.—Bloody finger prints on the knob of the bedroom door today formed the only clue to the murder of Mrs. Bloom Seliger, found gagged in her apartments Tuesday. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of death by suffocation. Her rooms adjoin her store in the suburbs of Grand Forks. States Attorney Elton is investigating the case.

SHOOTS WOMAN FRIEND AND THEN COMMITS SUICIDE

MISS MILDREN HANAN, 25 YEAR OLD DAUGHTER OF MILLIONAIRE SHOE MAN IS THE VICTIM

(By United Press)

New York, Sept. 23.—Miss Mildred Hanan, 25, daughter of the late millionaire shoe manufacturer, was shot and seriously wounded early today by Mrs. Grace Lowes, San Francisco, who then committed suicide.

The shooting took place in Brooklyn Miss Hanan, escorted by John S. Borland, an importer, was walking across the street when Mrs. Lewis stepped out and fired three shots. She then shot herself in the head.

Police said the motive was jealousy. The details of the case have not been cleared up.

Miss Hanan with a bullet in her arm, left breast and one over the heart, staggered a few steps along the sidewalk and then sat down on a door step.

Mrs. Lowes after she shot herself fell headlong into an alley where her body was found later by police.

Questioned by Assistant District Attorney Reuben Wilson, Miss Hanan said that she dined with Borland and Miss Dorothy Grottschalk at her home on Park Avenue, New York last night, and later they all went to the home of Miss Grottschalk in Brooklyn.

As she and Borland emerged from the residence about 1 a. m. and started across the street she said they were confronted by Mrs. Lowes who said nothing but began firing.

Miss Hanan said she ran a few steps and then sat down on a door step. She refused to give her opinion as to Mrs. Lowes' motive.

Borland, questioned by police said he was introduced to Miss Hanan and Mrs. Lowes several months ago. Mrs. Lowes, he said, was a distant relative of the Hanans and lived in their home on Park Avenue. About two weeks ago he declared Mrs. Lowes quarrelled with the Hanans and moved to the hotel Vanderbilt. Later she wrote threatening letters to Miss Hanan, he said.

ULTIMATE VICTORY FOR CONSERVATIVES MINERS CONVENTION

STATE DELEGATIONS FROM RADICAL QUARTERS SPLIT ON SUPPORTING THEIR LEADERS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—Ultimate victory for the conservative element in the United Mine Workers convention seemed certain today as anti-administration forces lost strength. The home state delegations of Alexander Howatt and Frank Farrington, so-called radicals, are split on the question affecting them.

The delegation from Kansas, which Howatt's leadership has, and its president, is said to be evenly divided, half backing Howatt and the other half supporting the international administration against Howatt's refusal to terminate two outlaw strikes.

Convention Splits President

Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—The United Mine Workers convention today sustained the conservative element by an overwhelming vote.

The test came over the question of adopting President Lewis' report which was amended to instruct Frank Farrington and other Illinois district officials, to itemize their expenditures of $27,000 in suppression of a "wild cat" strike at Belleville.

There was a weak chorus of "no" when Vice President Phil Murray called for a negative vote. The affirmative vote sounded with such force the convention floor trembled.

TREATIES REPORTED TO SENATE WITH ONE RESERVATION

BY A VOTE OF NINE TO ONE, SENATOR BORAH CASTING THE ONE VOTE

FRASER EDWARDS (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Sept. 23.—With one reservation attached, the senate foreign relations committee today reported to the senate for ratification the three new peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary. The vote of the committee was 9 to 1.

The reservation was designed to meet partially the objection against the new treaties by Senator Borah of Idaho. This concession did not satisfy the irreconcilable leader and he cast the only vote against reporting the new pacts.

Borah indicated that he will carry his fight to the senate floor.

The reservation is similar to that offered by Senator Lodge to the treaty of Versailles to prevent the appointment of an American representative on any international body set up under the treaty without the expressed consent of congress. It was offered by Senator Borah.

Two Reservations

The new peace treaty with Germany, Austria and Hungary virtually amended by two reservations were placed before the senate today for ratification by the senate foreign relations committee.

Senator Borah who has made a determined fight against the treaties on the ground that they will involve the United States in European affairs, was the only committee member to vote against reporting the treaties to the senate. Three democrats voted for reporting the treaties, indicating that prompt action may be had in the senate, although Borah indicated he would carry his fight to the senate floor.

The first reservation adopted prohibits American membership on the reparations commission or any other international organization without the explicit consent of congress. This was offered by Senator Brandegee of Connecticut. The second reservation offered by Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, makes it certain that the property rights of American citizens and the federal government will not be jeopardized by the treaties. The reporting of the treaty followed assurance from high administration officials that American troops in Germany will be withdrawn immediately following exchange of ratification if treaties with Germany.

STORK PAYS VISIT ON AUTOMOBILE TRIP

(By United Press.)

Marion, Ohio, Sept. 23.—Storks can travel faster than automobiles, Matt Jeffries of Columbus learned today.

Jeffries and his wife were motoring north of here today when the stork overtook them. The father erected a tent he was carrying in the car and the baby was born therein. The automobile trip will be continued as soon as Mrs. Jeffries' condition permits.

Six Persons are Charged With Criminal Carelessness

Hibbing, Minn., Sept. 23.—Criminal carelessness is the charge brought against six persons who started brush fires in this district with permits. The fires resulted in disaster, according to District Ranger D. L. McIntosh. No more permits for brush burning will be issued until snow flies, McIntosh warned. Farmers, however, who have tested fire breaks around their farms may secure permits.

Found Guilty of Murdering Kaber

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 23.—Salvatore Cala today was found guilty of the murder of Daniel Kaber wealthy Lakewood publisher. The jury recommended mercy.

Cala confessed to police that he held Kabers hands while another hired assassin stabbed him twenty-four times. Mrs. Kabers is serving a life sentence for planning the murder. Cala will probably be sentenced to life imprisonment.

EIGHT PERSONS DROWN IN LAKE SUPERIOR

(By United Press)

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 23.—A camper arriving here last night told of the death of eight persons by drowning in Lake Superior when their sailboat capsized just above Sault Point ten days ago. The persons believed to have lost their lives are:

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis and two children, George Fiel and a small girl.

Adam Lewis whose parents are believed to have been on the ill-fated yacht, said he knew his parents were lost and that he was going to start searching for the bodies.

GIRL SWIMMER TO WED HER ULYSSES

BOATMAN AND DANISH AQUATIC EXPERT TAKE OUT MARRIAGE LICENSE

New York, Sept. 21.—Miss Mille Gade, the Danish girl who swam around Manhattan in June and from Albany to New York 10 days ago, is going to marry Ulysses of her trips, Clem Corson, the boatman who rowed alongside her every stroke of the 196 miles she swam this season. They have obtained the license for a ceremony to be performed today.

Miss Gade won fame in Denmark for her long distance swimming. She is 24 years old. Corson is a boatman at the Naval Militia headquarters. He gave his age as 37.

Neither member of the coming matrimonial team will divulge the romantic details of their courtship. Corson, however, vouched for the fact that it was romantic.

Miss Gade swam around Manhattan island on June 26, a distance of 43 miles, in 16 hours. She swam from Albany to New York in a week's time, finishing Sept. 8, the distance being 153 miles. Her only predecessor on the latter trip was a man who did it 25 years ago.

Ultimatum is Sent Hungary to Vacate Austrian Territory

(By United Press)

Paris, Sept. 23.—The allied ambassador council today sent an ultimatum to the Hungarian government directing the Hungarian troops to be withdrawn from Burgenland, the disputed territory on the Austrian border, within a few days.

Otherwise, the note says, "appropriate measures will be taken."

Burgenland was recently ceded to Austria but Hungarian troops and civilians seized the territory and attacked Austria, causing an appeal to the allies by Austria.

WOMAN MURDERED IN GRAND FORKS

Grand Forks, Sept. 23.—Bloody finger prints on the knob of the bedroom door today formed the only clue to the murder of Mrs. Bloom Seliger, found gagged in her apartments Tuesday. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of death by suffocation. Her rooms adjoin her store in the suburbs of Grand Forks. States Attorney Elton is investigating the case.

SHOOTS WOMAN FRIEND AND THEN COMMITS SUICIDE

MISS MILDREN HANAN, 25 YEAR OLD DAUGHTER OF MILLIONAIRE SHOE MAN IS THE VICTIM

(By United Press)

New York, Sept. 23.—Miss Mildred Hanan, 25, daughter of the late millionaire shoe manufacturer, was shot and seriously wounded early today by Mrs. Grace Lowes, San Francisco, who then committed suicide.

The shooting took place in Brooklyn Miss Hanan, escorted by John S. Borland, an importer, was walking across the street when Mrs. Lewis stepped up and fired three shots. She then shot herself in the head.

Police said the motive was jealousy. The details of the case have not been cleared up.

Miss Hanan with a bullet in her arm, left breast and one over the heart, staggered a few steps along the sidewalk and then sat down on a door step.

Mrs. Lowes after she shot herself fell headlong into an alley where her body was found later by police.

Questioned by Assistant District Attorney Reuben Wilson, Miss Hanan said that she dined with Borland and Miss Dorothy Grottschalk at her home on Park Avenue, New York last night, and later they all went to the home of Miss Grottschalk in Brooklyn.

As she and Borland emerged from the residence about 1 a. m. and started across the street she said they were confronted by Mrs. Lowes who said nothing but began firing.

Miss Hanan said she ran a few steps and then sat down on a door step. She refused to give her opinion as to Mrs. Lowes' motive.

Borland, questioned by police said he was introduced to Miss Hanan and Mrs. Lowes several months ago. Mrs. Lowes, he said, was a distant relative of the Hanans and lived in their home on Park avenue. About two weeks ago he declared Mrs. Lowes quarrelled with the Hanans and moved to the hotel Vanderbilt. Later she wrote threatening letters to Miss Hanan, he said.

ULTIMATE VICTORY FOR CONSERVATIVES MINERS CONVENTION

STATE DELEGATIONS FROM RADICAL QUARTERS SPLIT ON SUPPORTING THEIR LEADERS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—Ultimate victory for the conservative element in the United Mine Workers convention seemed certain today as anti-administration forces lost strength. The home state delegations of Alexander Howatt and Frank Farrington, so-called radicals, are split on the question affecting them.

The delegation from Kansas, which Howatt's leadership has, and its president, is said to be evenly divided, half backing Howatt and the other half supporting the international administration against Howatt's refusal to terminate two outlaw strikes.

Convention Splits President

Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—The United Mine Workers convention today sustained the conservative element by an overwhelming vote.

The test came over the question of adopting President Lewis' report which was amended to instruct Frank Farrington and other Illinois district officials, to itemize their expenditures of $27,000 in suppression of a "wild cat" strike at Belleville.

There was a weak chorus of "no" when Vice President Phil Murray called for a negative vote. The affirmative vote sounded with such force the convention floor trembled.

BEAUTIFYING GROUNDS

Cement Walks and Drives to Be Laid at New Court House, Followed by Leveling Grounds

The work of laying cement walks and drives on the grounds of the new court house has begun. The revised plans and specifications are on file in the office of the county auditor, C. W. Mahlum, and at the last commissioners' meeting $1500 was set aside from the building fund to cover the work to be done.

Walter M. Murphy, the county engineer, is in charge of the work, and men and teams under the direction of Kirk J. Smith, assistant engineer, are at work hauling sand and grading the ground to the rear. The forms are set for the large circular drive, which is to be directly back of the court house. This is to be used for coal wagons and for the reversal of cars. The driveway is to be twelve feet wide, making a circle whose outer edges have a diameter of seventy-two feet. The inner circle has a diameter of forty-eight feet, leaving sufficient space for the effective planting of shrubs.

The walks to the main entrance are to be eight feet in width, and arranged to form a semi-circle. Within the half circle beautiful plants and ornamental shrubbery will eventually be placed.

A walk will lead from the main sidewalk on Laurel street to the east entrance, continuing to the rear, and from the west side of the sheriff's home and county jail the eight foot driveway will be extended to join the wider, circular driveway. A short walk is also to be laid from the west entrance of the court house to the county jail.

As soon as the walks and driveways are completed, establishing the grade for the grounds, the engineering department will start the leveling and surfacing of the whole court house property, after which the planting of trees and shrubbery will be considered.

BEAUTIFYING GROUNDS

Cement Walks and Drives to Be Laid at New Court House, Followed by Leveling Grounds

The work of laying cement walks and drives on the grounds of the new court house has begun. The revised plans and specifications are on file in the office of the county auditor, C. W. Mahlum, and at the last commissioners' meeting $1500 was set aside from the building fund to cover the work to be done.

Walter M. Murphy, the county engineer, is in charge of the work, and men and teams under the direction of Kirk J. Smith, assistant engineer, are at work hauling sand and grading the ground to the rear. The forms are set for the large circular drive, which is to be directly back of the court house. This is to be used for coal wagons and for the reversal of cars. The driveway is to be twelve feet wide, making a circle whose outer edges have a diameter of seventy-two feet. The inner circle has a diameter of forty-eight feet, leaving sufficient space for the effective planting of shrubs.

The walks to the main entrance are to be eight feet in width, and arranged to form a semi-circle. Within the half circle beautiful plants and ornamental shrubbery will eventually be placed.

A walk will lead from the main sidewalk on Laurel street to the east entrance, continuing to the rear, and from the west side of the sheriff's home and county jail the eight foot driveway will be extended to join the wider, circular driveway. A short walk is also to be laid from the west entrance of the court house to the county jail.

As soon as the walks and driveways are completed, establishing the grade for the grounds, the engineering department will start the leveling and surfacing of the whole court house property, after which the planting of trees and shrubbery will be considered.

EXPLAINS SCOUT MOVEMENT

Leonard D. Fackler, Chicago News-paper Man, Speaks to Rotary Club on Scout Work

AT FRIDAY NOON LUNCHEON

"Scouting," said the speaker, "is not a Military Movement—It Develops Character Efficiency"

Leonard D. Fackler, a newspaper man from Chicago, who is actually interested in Boy Scout work, addressed the Rotary club at their weekly noon luncheon at the Ransford hotel Friday. The Rotary club secured his services to advise them as to the best work to be done for the boys of the community.

In responding to his introduction, Mr. Fackler paid high compliment to the Brainerd Rotary Club for the interest they were taking in the boys of their community, and especially because of their intention to use the Boy Scout movement as the mode of their work for the boys. This movement, the speaker asserted, appeared to him to be the best vehicle of interest in boys, as he had had experience in several of the leading boys' work programs of the country. Mr. Fackler continued:

"In order that we may fully understand the purpose and method of Scouting, let us for a moment consider what Scouting is not, and what it is.

"First—Scouting is not a military movement. Its chief concern is the development of character and efficiency in the teen-age boys. To accomplish this, the program necessarily includes special attention to the virtues of loyalty, reverence, courtesy, chivalry, bravery, obedience, order, resourcefulness, cleanliness, cheerfulness, kindness, temperance, neatness, moral courage, alertness, physical strength, endurance, and honor. To this end, special instruction is given in patriotism, signaling, cooking, camping, sanitation, first aid to the injured, how to care for oneself in the open, chivalry, woodcraft, personal hygiene, public hygiene, civics, and the general principles conducive to good discipline. While some of these things are included in the ordinary training of a soldier, they are indispensable to the Scout program, especially if a Scout is to live up to his motto—Be Prepared,—and fulfill his obligations as a citizen at all times. The uniform, the patrol, the troop, the special Scout drills and activities are not for military tactics, nor can they be considered as military training when they are correctly used. They are for harmony and uniformity, for the training of group consciousness.

"Second—The Boy Scout Movement is not a sectarian organization. All boys over 12 years of age who take the Scout Oath and who obey the Scout law may be numbered in the organization regardless of creed, nationality, or color.

"Third—It is not a one-sided program. Many people err in thinking that Scout work is merely supervised play and physical culture. Rather it embraces a balanced training of the physical, mental, social, and moral phases of a boy's life. Emphasis is laid upon the cultivation of honor, courtesy, helpfulness, and reverence.

"Fourth—It is not lacking in capable leadership. Such men as President Harding, Woodrow Wilson, William Howard Taft, William G. McAdoo, Harold McCormick, Daniel Carter Beard, George W. Goethals, George D. Porter, Theodore Roosevelt Jr., and others of national importance are on the Executive Board. Throughout the rank and file, the best men that can be secured are filling the positions of Scout Commissioners, Scout Executives, and Scout Masters; and the great majority of these serve without pay, giving their services as a contribution to the welfare of the future.

"Now let us see for a moment what the Scout program is. In the first place it cultivates a boy's highest ideals. A Boy Scout is called upon to be the best physically that he can be, and to so live and take care of himself that his body will answer to any demand made upon it. He is encouraged to think out problems, and to think them out quickly and logically. He is spurred on to make available for practical use everything that he learns in school, church, Scout troop or elsewhere. He is given a vital ideal of what it means to be a constituent member of the community and the privileges and responsibilities belonging thereto. He is encouraged to take the broadest and most certain view of religion, that is—the personality of God and man's relation to the Creator. The best and most constructive thoughts are encouraged and developed in the boy.

"As the outgrowth of this genetic idealism, Scouting trains the boy for leadership. In view of the fact that only from eight to twelve per cent of the boys in America ever graduate from high school, and scarcely two per cent of all the boys graduate from college, it is quite apparent that the qualities developed in the Boy Scout are going to contribute largely to the leadership in community life not many years hence. The community spirit, the group consciousness, and the harmony of action inculcated in the Scout Troops will surely reap in better and more responsible citizenship. The boys themselves, as a part of their work, are taught how to command, when once they themselves have learned to obey."

The speaker then went into some detail as to the technique of the organization, making definite suggestions regarding the election of a Scout Council, a Scout Commissioner, and the selection of Scout Masters and the organization of local Troops in Brainerd. He set forth the ideal of ten active Troops in this city, and the possibilities of community service by the boys in turn for the interest taken in them.

Illustrations were given of what other Scout Troops had done in the way of information bureaus, first aid and comfort stations, cleaner streets, public playground discipline, special police, and public health by other Troops in various parts of the country. One near at hand was the information bureau and first aid station at the Aitkin county fair this week, by Aitkin Troop No. 1.

"The crux of the whole local organization," continued Mr. Fackler, "is the selection of the Scout Master. Upon him depends the success or failure of any Troop. The four most essential characteristics of a good Scout Master are:

"A man of the highest moral character. Preferably he should be a Christian.

"He must be a man who likes boys, who has a vital interest in every phase of their welfare, and who understands the varying moods of adolescence.

"In addition, he must be a man whom the boys will respect. No matter how capable he may be, if he does not have the confidence of the lads, then his work will accomplish nothing.

"He must give time and energy unflinchingly to the work. It is not an onerous task, but it can in no degree, however slight, be neglected."

In conclusion the speaker said: "The only known source of manhood, is boys. The afford the challenge supreme. It is a big thing to do—and the beauty of it, you can do this great work right here at home, and see the results from month to month. It is both a high privilege and a grave responsibility. God help the men and women of Brainerd to live up to them."

the Americans on Sept. 26th, 1918. This was the drive that ended the war continuing until Nov. 11, 1918, the day of the armistice.

BRITAIN AS ARBITER

From the Boston Transcript.

The London Times says concerning the role of the British Government at the Washington conference:

"As an ally of Japan and a close friend of the United States, Great Britain is in a particularly favorable position to express a view that may serve as a wise and fruitful compromise."

Our esteemed contemporary is in error. As long as Great Britain remains an ally of Japan the United States cannot recognize Great Britain as "a close friend"! That alliance is disagreeable to the government and people of the United States and it is the part of friendship at this moment to make that fact as plain as possible to the government and people of the British empire. Unless and until that alliance is dissolved the American people cannot accept as genuine the assurances of friendship that are coming from Britishers of high and low degree today. The sincerity of such assurances is belied by the survival of the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

Moreover, the Times is also uninformed concerning American public opinion if it assumes that the American people have so soon forgotten the lesson of Versailles. At the Versailles conference Mr. Lloyd George essayed the role of arbiter between Mr. Wilson and Mr. Clemenceau and the United States and France paid the price. Mr. Lloyd George essayed the role of arbiter with such advantage to his client—the British empire—that more than 800,000 square miles of territory were added outright to that empire, and in the newly created supergovernment set up at Geneva six seats were assigned in the assembly to the British empire—six times as many as any other nation received—and a Britisher was installed for life or good behavior as the executive head of the League. There were only a few of the fruits of Mr. Lloyd George's victory. But from the standpoint of the British empire they are ample to warrant the assumption by the Times that in the role of arbiter between America and Japan Great Britain would be in a position to influence "a wise and fruitful compromise." Wise for the Anglo-Japanese alliance and fruitful to each of its two partners.

Unlike Japan, America seeks no special position in the Far East, champions no special interests in China, wants no special alliances within or without the Anglo-Japanese alliance. The United States long ago enunciated and England and Japan, among other powers, adhered to the policy of "the open door" in China. In company with China, France and Italy, today the United States is asking two members of the Anglo-Japanese alliance to live up to their solemn commitment. This they have not been doing in recent years. For all of the aggrandizing demands upon China which Japan has made, since the Anglo-Japanese alliance was negotiated, have been made with the tact if not the formal consent of her ally, Great Britain.

Had the British government been successful in its effort to bring about a preliminary conference between America, Japan and Great Britain, doubtless the role of arbiter would then and there have been the goal of the British delegation. But the prompt refusal of Secretary Hughes to be drawn into such a parley was in itself a hint that the United States was not courting any special arrangement with Great Britain and Japan in regard to pending Far Eastern and Pacific questions. Doubtless Mr. Hughes is well aware the Senate of the United States would not ratify any treaty, the American people would not sanction any protocol dealing with the peace of the Pacific which was in effect a special alliance. "The Open Door" means the open door for France and Italy as well as for Japan, Great Britain and America. And "The administrative entity and territorial integrity" of China must be as scrupulously respected by Great Britain and Japan as it is by the United States, France and Italy, if the Washington conference is to get far enough even to consider the limitation of armaments.

To date not even the London Times, friendly as is its attitude toward the United States, appears to understand why the Washington Conference was called or what its true goal is to be. For in the light of an accurate understanding of the why and wherefore of that Conference our esteemed contemporary would not be advocating the role of arbiter for Great Britain. The United States seeks and will accept no arbiter in the matters to be discussed at the Washington Conference. For that is to be a conference of equals. The sooner this fact is faced upon the other side of the Atlantic the better it will be for all concerned.

KU KLUX KLAN EXPOSURE

The recent exposure by the leading newspapers of the country of the modern Ku Klux Klan has shown that nefarious secret organization in its true light, with its malignant conspiracy to inflame racial and religious hate. Already in many communities the Ku Klux Klan has been prohibited by the authorities from holding meetings or appearing in street parades, and an investigation of the secret work and objects of the organization is to be made by the government. Newspapers everywhere, irrespective of politics or religion, denounce it. Doubtless a great majority of the members did not fully realize the nature of the organization when they joined it.

The original Ku Klux Klan, which came into existence in the South during "the reconstruction period" following the Civil war, was a lawless oathbound secret organization created to terrorize the just-freed negroes and the political "carpetbaggers." "Ku Kluxing" and "whitewashing" are synonymous words to this day for describing masked violence and anonymous terrorism, as shown by countless recorded cases of outrages when they deemed it necessary to "put the fear of God" into a "scalawag carpet-bagger" or a negro. The new and modern Ku Klux Klan is an ugly and sinister organization inspired by hate—as the Duluth Herald says, "hate of the negro, hate of the Jew, hate of the Roman Catholic." It has not a single redeeming feature. Professing its thorough red-blooded Americanism, it is in every way un-American, as shown by the spirit of racial and religious antagonism which blackly inspires it. We have no room for such an organization in free America, and it will be short lived.

SENATOR KELLOGG'S CANDIDACY

Senator Frank B. Kellogg's announcement of his candidacy for reelection has opened the 1922 campaign, which will probably rival the 1920 political season in activity and interest because of the endorsement conventions to be held next spring. Judge Oscar Hallam of the State Supreme Court, it is understood, will also be a candidate.

Senator Kellogg was elected to the United States Senate in 1916. He has been prominent in agricultural legislation designed to protect the interests of Minnesota farmers, and he supports the policies now exemplified by President Harding. Judge Hallam is good senatorial timber, and would doubtless be all that his friends claim for him, but he will find Frank Kellogg a hard man to beat. Politicians put it this way: "Kellogg is in; he has the organization, and the state convention, when it meets, will not be unmindful of the fact that he is serving his first term."

The talk is that former Congressman Frank Ellsworth, of the Second District, still has designs on the Republican nomination for governor. It seems to be the opinion of politicians, however, that he might as well save the $50 filing fee.

Exceptional Offering at the New Park—Rex Beach's "The Silver Horde"

"The Silver Horde," the new offering which will be shown at the New Park theatre beginning today is a glowing tribute to the ability of the author, Rex Beach. It is an Eminent Authors production, and meets the high standard for pictures set by this brand.

The story fairly pulsates with the spirit of indomitable courage and daring which mark those who defy the ruggedness of the North and the struggle for existence. The cast is made up of players of excellent types, all equal in ability to present true characterizations.

Most of the action revolves about the parts played by Myrtle Stedman, Robert McKim, Betty Blythe, Curtis Cooksey and Frederick Stanton, players popular with lovers of the screen, who put many thrills and a great deal of romance into the fight waged by the trust interests against the independent faction for a monopoly of the salmon canning industry in Alaska.

Rex Beach journeyed to the Northwest with Director Frank Lloyd and the cast for the exterior scenes made in that location, and rendered much assistance in keeping the action realistic and in harmony with his visualization of the story he wrote.

At the Lyceum

Maryon Aye is one of the screen's most beautiful young ladies. In addition to lending to the screen, grace, charm and a refined personality, she is a gifted actress of reserve and power, as is shown by her performance in "The Broadway Buckaroo" which is showing at the Lyceum tonight and Saturday.

Miss Aye is the young feminine star in the Larry Semon comedy hit, "The Hick," which recently played here.

Women Brave Dangers to Help Run Down Criminals

The dangerous part played by women in running down criminals is shown in the second episode of "Fighting Fate," the latest Vitagraph chapter play, with William Duncan and Edith Johnson, which may be seen at the Lyceum tonight and Saturday. Miss Johnson, playing the part of a millionaire's daughter, to help her fiancé trap a band of gangsters, gets a job at their headquarters, and sticks to it, with completely successful results, although she is subjected to the greatest personal annoyance and peril. The scene is a revelation of work now actually done all over the United States by women detectives.

At the Lyceum Sunday

A stab into those dark chapters of marital unhappiness that never are probed by the light of publicity is revealed in "The Invisible Divorce," which shows at the Lyceum theatre Sunday.

It is one of the most absorbing photodramas shown here in months, departing as it does from the beaten path and sounding secrets that men and women have kept strictly to themselves for ages. Instead of one "triangle" there are two; and the two triangles touch a wife and a husband leaving another husband and wife, respectively surveying the blasted wreck of their lives. Each knew that the one they had promised to love and keep was unfaithful, neither was willing to undergo the inevitable publicity of divorce. So the two triangles formed a parallelogram of unrest and sadness that required the sunshine of love to pierce.

BRITAIN AS ARBITER

From the Boston Transcript.

The London Times says concerning the role of the British Government at the Washington conference:

"As an ally of Japan and a close friend of the United States, Great Britain is in a particularly favorable position to express a view that may serve as a wise and fruitful compromise."

Our esteemed contemporary is in error. As long as Great Britain remains an ally of Japan the United States cannot recognize Great Britain as "a close friend". That alliance is disagreeable to the government and people of the United States and it is the part of friendship at this moment to make that fact as plain as possible to the government and people of the British empire. NEW PARK HOST TO LEGIONNAIRES

Clyde E. Parker, of Parker & Workman, Ex-Service Man, Extends Welcome to Convention

THEATRE PARTY SUNDAY NIGHT

Following Show Legionnaires Will Have a Get-Together Meeting at Elks Hall

The management of the New Park theatre has extended, through Clyde E. Parker, a member of the local post of the American Legion, an invitation to all legionnaires and other ex-service men to attend the second performance of the New Park theatre on Sunday evening, September 25th. The entire middle section of the lower floor will be reserved for these men. The second performance will commence promptly at 9 o'clock.

The management of the New Park theatre extended this invitation to the Legion men and other ex-service men to show their appreciation of the service these men rendered to their country at a time when they were needed and the Legion men expressed deep appreciation of the kind thoughtfulness of the New Park theatre management for extending this invitation to them and to other ex-service men at the time of the Sixth District convention of the American Legion which is to be held in Brainerd.

All service men who wish to attend this performance may go to the New Park theatre and simply state at the door that they are former service men and they will be admitted.

Following this show, the visiting legionnaires and other ex-service men of Brainerd and surrounding territory are invited by the local post of the American Legion to visit Elks' hall, third floor of the Citizens State bank building, where there will be a general get-together meeting of former service men. There will be an entertainment and refreshments provided.

A large number of the visiting delegates will arrive in Brainerd on Sunday afternoon. These men will be entertained by the members of the local post until time for the evening performance at the New Park theatre.

Final arrangements have been made for housing the visiting men and headquarters will be established in the lobby of the Ransford hotel where all legionnaires and visiting delegates will register on their arrival in Brainerd. They will be furnished at once with an official program of the convention.

Every convenience has been provided for the visitors while they are in the city. The entertainment committee has provided an unusually good program for the banquet to be held at the Ransford hotel Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock. This banquet is open to all ex-service men who leave their names at Anderson's Studio before Saturday noon. Any ex-service man who has not left his name at the studio, please do so at once if he wishes to attend the Monday evening banquet.

On the program are such well-known local people as S. F. Alderman, C. D. Johnson, A. C. Mraz, Roland Jenkins, C. A. Albright, H. P. Dunn, Dr. G. I. Badeaux, Dr. A. A. Van Dyke, State Commander of the American Legion will make the principal address of the evening at the banquet. Other speakers will be Stafford King, State Adjutant; Gerald V. An opportunity will be given every veteran of the World War in Wadena and Crow Wing counties to receive assistance in the settling of claims for compensation, advice, as to hospitalization or vocational education or information relative to any problems arising from his war service on October 10 and 11 when the local "Clean Up" Campaign is on. Where it is not possible because of illness or disability to present claims in person, the local Red Cross workers will endeavor to assist in getting necessary information to members of the squad.

As this is the most intensive effort which has yet been made to locate all claimants and adjust their claims satisfactorily the cooperation of every resident is asked in reaching these cases. Additional information may be secured at Red Cross headquarters.

SENATE PILED WITH WORK AS CONGRESS ENDS RECESS

By L. C. MARTIN,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, Sept. 21.—Congress got back to work today, with its leaders determined to push its major tasks to completion within sixty days.

While the house had little ahead of it requiring immediate action, the senate's calendar was crowded with business.

President Harding was expected to submit the treaty with Germany at once. At the same time, the finance committee was to report the $4,000,000,000 tax bill. These two measures appeared likely to claim the center of the senatorial stage for some weeks to come.

In addition, the senate has the conference report on the anti-beer bill to dispose of. This is one of the most warmly controverted measures ever before congress, and there was no sign of weakening by its opponents. They were ready to go ahead tying up the bill indefinitely, they said, until their wishes were met.

Senator Borah's bill repealing tolls on American coastwise ships passing through the Panama canal was the unfinished business before the senate when it met. Borah's bill will be voted on October 10, but it is unlikely much of the interim will be spent in debate upon it.

The railroad relief bill, already passed by the house, and the allied debt refunding bill were both on the senate's calendar. An effort will be made to get the railroad bill through, but the debt refunding measure has been sidetracked for the present.

The interstate commerce committee is scheduled to resume its exhaustive investigation of the railroad situation at an early date. In several weeks of investigation last spring, the committee heard the railroad's side of the question involved. Labor is to be heard this fall.

The senate labor committee has the West Virginia mine war on its hands, and will try to formulate some settlement, after completing its investigation. Reports on the investigation of Truman H. Newberry's right to his seat as a U. S. senator from Michigan will be filed with the senate, and at some time before December an effort will be made to bring up the question on the floor. This will precipitate a bitter partisan fight.

A sub-committee is to continue an investigation began in the summer of American intervention in Haiti and Santo Domingo. The committee may decide to visit the island republics. A naval sub-committee will resume its inquiry into the case of Capt. Chamberlain, whose aerial exploits during the war resulted in his dismissal from the naval service. Chamberlain claims he was unjustly convicted and dismissed, and is seeking vindication.

The senate also has the tariff bill, but administration leaders did not know just where it would fit into the legislative program. That will be determined when the tax bill is out of the way.

The house, meanwhile, may consider the maternity bill which the senate had passed, or may take up a soldier bonus bill. The allied loan refunding measure also may come in for some attention. A further deficiency appropriation also is expected before long.

HEAVY CORN CROP

(By United Press.)
Saranac Lake, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Farmers throughout northern New York are reported to be highly elated because of the wonderful growth of corn during the past month. At many farms corn has reached a height of over twelve feet and every indication points to one of the greatest crops on record in the North Country.

The bumper corn crop is particularly welcome, as the hay crop this season was very light and of poor quality. Now, however, with silos filled to the top with ensilage, many farmers will be able to winter their cattle, who otherwise would have been forced to sell them.

FRANCE DISPLACES GERMANY AS MECCA FOR U. S. STUDENTS

By EDWIN HULLINGER,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Paris. (By Mail).—That Paris and other French university cities have already taken the place formerly held by Berlin and Heidelberg as Meccas for ambitious American college students has been revealed by statistics recently compiled by the American University Union in Paris.

American young people are flocking to France now in even greater numbers than they formerly did to Germany, largely as a result of the excellent publicity work of the returned doughboys. Some of the students, of course, were in France themselves during the war.

More than 400 Americans are formally registered in the various universities of France this summer. Three-fourths of these are at the Sorbonne, Paris University. Grenoble, in the French Alps, has attracted about fifty, Dijon reports another fifty.

Paris also bids fair to replace Berlin as a finishing place for American musical students. A large number of students of piano and voice are already studying in Paris, and the number is steadily increasing.

As always, the Latin Quarter is alive with Yankee art students. The Rotonde, famous rendezvous of students and birthplace of the Bolshevik Revolution, cubism, and many other isms, has been turned into a regular American hangout, where English is more often heard than French.

NORTHWEST NEWS

(By United Press.)
W. C. T. U. Convention
Park River, N. D., Sept. 23.—"We are trying to be concrete to free ourselves from any possible charge of visionary theorizing," said Mrs. Barbara Wylie, manager of the state headquarters of the Women's Christian Temperance organization at the opening of the annual convention here today.

To illustrate Mrs. Wylie pointed out that instead of vaguely talking "Americanization" speakers at the convention will teach union members to "neighbor the foreign raised mother" and be "big sisters to the expectant mothers" who may be too poor or unlearned to give themselves the proper care.

Law enforcement in the state and the young people will be other subjects of discussion.

The national association will be represented by Mrs. Maude B. Perkins, East Syracuse, N. Y., general secretary of the National Young People's branch and Miss Helen Estelle, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., superintendent of the department of anti-narcotics.

The annual address of Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, state president, will be delivered at the banquet tonight, a departure from former years.

The prize to be awarded in the membership campaign will be an enlarged picture of Mrs. Anderson who served president for twenty-seven years of the thirty-one that the North Dakota branch has existed.

KU KLUX KLAN LEADERS RESIGN VICE CHARGE MADE

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 22.—Imperial Kleagle Edward Young Clarke of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, chief of the women's division of the Klan, today announced that they had separately tendered their resignations to Imperial Wizard William J. Simmons, to take effect whenever he thought their resignations were for the good of the order.

Imperial Kleagle Clarke, who was in charge of the Klan's publicity department, was declared by Imperial Wizard Simmons to be one of the most valuable aids. Mrs. Taylor was an associate of Imperial Kleagle in the publicity department until Imperial Wizard Simmons drafted her and made her chief of the newly created women's division.

Resignation Follows Vice Charge
Imperial Wizard Simmons today said he had received their proffers and that he had them under consideration, but that he would take no action until he had thoroughly investigated the charges made against the two.

It was charged—and the charge has been repeated in an Atlanta paper—that police records show Mr. Clarke had been found by officers at midnight at the home of Mrs. Tyler, that the two had been arrested, that the next morning they had been fined $5 each.

A bottle of whiskey had been found in the house, but this was claimed by another person and the two defendants were absolved from blame for its presence.

Was Ill, Says Clarke
Mr. Clarke explained this statement, according to an interview published in Atlanta, by the statement that he had been living in a hotel, had been taken ill and removed to Mrs. Tyler's home to be given the proper treatment there, and that his arrest had been engineered by his wife, who sought to divorce him.

An interesting development of today was the discovery that the police court records in this case have disappeared and that also the records in the Clarke divorce suit are also missing.

Demand was made today on Solicitor General John Boykin to order an investigation by the grand jury of this occurrence. Announcement also was made by Mrs. Tyler that she had discharged a Donald Bate, of Newark, N. J., a district kleagle who had demanded the discharge of Clarke and Mrs. Tyler, while Colonel Simmons stated that he had not definitely decided on Bate's case.

That Word "Strike."
The first use of the word "strike," as applied to labor troubles, occurred in a London newspaper in 1765. In September of that year were numerous references to a great stoppage of labor in the coal fields, and the workers are said to have "struck out" for higher wages.—Indianapolis News.

August Medal Winners in Winchester Rifle Corps Matches in State—Many Win Medals

August was the best month so far for competition in the Winchester Junior Rifle Corps matches. Some 1784 boys and girls won medals during the month, which makes a total of 11,219 medals awarded this year. There is no other organization in the world doing the same amount of good as the W. J. R. C. Instructors show the boys and girls how to enjoy life in the open, give them instruction in the art of shooting, and when proficient the member receives medal awards for his or her efforts. Pro-marksmen medals were given to 899 boys and girls in August, marksmen medals were given to 463, sharpshooters medals to 165, possible bursts to 219, expert medals to 17 and instructors medals to 16.

Here are the names of the medal winners in this state:

Alonzo N. Thurlow, Pequot.
F. J. Knights, Pequot.
J. M. Dick, Jr., 194 Pleasant St., Arlington.
Jalmir Hervi, Box No. 2, Angora.

Attractive Window Display

An unusually attractive window display was that of the Northern Home Furnishing company the past week. Handsome period furniture was attractively arranged to give a very home-like effect. A vanity dresser and chiffonette of burled walnut in the William and Mary period was shown, together with a four-poster bed in the same wood. The Queen Anne spinet desk, a beautiful one in antique mahogany, with interesting drawer pulls of old brass, was conveniently placed, with a comfortable chair facing it.

Before the fireplace was an upholstered fibre chaise longue, and though not of period design, its modern style blended very nicely with the more dignified pieces. An Edith Cavell sewing cabinet stood near by. The beautiful brown mahogany cabinet is dedicated by the makers to the memory of this martyred woman, an inscription being placed in each one made.

The rugs used in the display room were of French Wilton in a copy of the Imperial Soruk design. The hangings were of brown and gold, making a pleasing background for the rich furniture. On the dresser were two pretty electric lamps, shaded in blue, and the desk bore a pair of ivory electric candles, with Dresden shades.

At the foot of the bed was a cedar chest of unusual design. Several chairs in rockers, mahogany, both plain and broken, a floor lamp with a rose-colored shade, and a few soft round cushions completed the charming make-believe bedroom.

The efforts of the merchants of Brainerd to place their goods before the public in a metropolitan manner is commendable, and should be encouraged by just appreciation.

Didn't Waste Money on Food

"The recent campaign against wastefulness in eating did not affect me much as I haven't been able to eat anything but toast and tea for the past five years. Even that would create gas and cause me distress. My weight was down to eighty-four pounds and my complexion muddy. I had frequent pains in the region of my appendix. I am glad I did not listen to an operation, as Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has made a new woman of me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and all good druggists.—Adv.

SENATE PILED WITH WORK AS CONGRESS ENDS RECESS

By L. C. MARTIN.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Sept. 21.—Congress got back to work today, with its leaders determined to push its major tasks to completion within sixty days.

While the house had little ahead of it requiring immediate action, the senate's calendar was crowded with business.

President Harding was expected to submit the treaty with Germany at once. At the same time, the finance committee was to report the $4,000,000,000 tax bill. These two measures appeared likely to claim the center of the senatorial stage for some weeks to come.

In addition, the senate has the conference report on the anti-beer bill to dispose of. This is one of the most warmly controverted measures ever before congress, and there was no sign of weakening by its opponents. They were ready to go ahead tying up the bill indefinitely, they said, until their wishes were met.

Senator Borah's bill repealing tolls on American coastwise ships passing through the Panama canal was the unfinished business before the senate when it met. Borah's bill will be voted on October 10, but it is unlikely much of the interim will be spent in debate upon it.

The railroad relief bill, already passed by the house, and the allied debt refunding bill were both on the senate's calendar. An effort will be made to get the railroad bill through, but the debt refunding measure has been sidetracked for the present.

The interstate commerce committee is scheduled to resume its exhaustive investigation of the railroad situation at an early date. In several weeks of investigation last spring, the committee heard the railroad's side of the question involved. Labor is to be heard this fall.

The senate labor committee has the West Virginia mine war on its hands, and will try to formulate some settlement, after completing its investigation. Reports on the investigation of Truman H. Newberry's right to his seat as a U. S. senator from Michigan will be filed with the senate, and at some time before December an effort will be made to bring up the question on the floor. This will precipitate a bitter partisan fight.

A sub-committee is to continue an investigation began in the summer of American intervention in Haiti and Santo Domingo. The committee may decide to visit the island republics. A naval sub-committee will resume its inquiry into the case of Capt. Chamberlain, whose aerial exploits during the war resulted in his dismissal from the naval service. Chamberlain claims he was unjustly convicted and dismissed, and is seeking vindication.

The senate also has the tariff bill, but administration leaders did not know just where it would fit into the legislative program. That will be determined when the tax bill is out of the way.

The house, meanwhile, may consider the maternity bill which the senate had passed, or may take up a soldier bonus bill. The allied loan refunding measure also may come in for some attention. A further deficiency appropriation also is expected before long.

HEAVY CORN CROP

(By United Press.)

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Farmers throughout northern New York are reported to be highly elated because of the wonderful growth of corn during the past month. At many farms corn has reached a height of over twelve feet and every indication points to one of the greatest crops on record in the North Country.

The bumper corn crop is particularly welcome, as the hay crop this season was very light and of poor quality. Now, however, with silos filled to the top with ensilage, many farmers will be able to winter their cattle, who otherwise would have been forced to sell them.

FRANCE DISPLACES GERMANY AS MECCA FOR U. S. STUDENTS

By EDWIN HULLINGER.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Paris. (By Mail).—That Paris and other French university cities have already taken the place formerly held by Berlin and Heidelberg as Meccas for ambitious American college students has been revealed by statistics recently compiled by the American University Union in Paris.

American young people are flocking to France now in even greater numbers than they formerly did to Germany, largely as a result of the excellent publicity work of the returned doughboys. Some of the students, of course, were in France themselves during the war.

More than 400 Americans are formally registered in the various universities of France this summer. Three-fourths of these are at the Sorbonne, Paris University. Grenoble, in the French Alps, has attracted about fifty. Dijon reports another fifty.

Paris also bids fair to replace Berlin as a finishing place for American musical students. A large number of students of piano and voice are already studying in Paris, and the number is steadily increasing.

As always, the Latin Quarter is alive with Yankee art students. The Rotonde, famous rendezvous of students and birthplace of the Bolshevik Revolution, cubism, and many other isms, has been turned into a regular American hangout, where English is more often heard than French.

W. C. T. U. Convention
Park River, N. D., Sept. 23.—"We are trying to be concrete to free ourselves from any possible charge of visionary theorizing," said Mrs. Barbara Wylie, manager of the state headquarters of the Women's Christian Temperance organization at the opening of the annual convention here today.

To illustrate Mrs. Wylie pointed out that instead of vaguely talking "Americanization" speakers at the convention will teach union members to "neighbor the foreign raised mother" and be "big sisters to the expectant mothers" who may be too poor or unlearned to give themselves the proper care.

Law enforcement in the state and the young people will be other subjects of discussion.

The national association will be represented by Mrs. Maude B. Perkins, East Syracuse, N. Y., general secretary of the National Young People's branch and Miss Helen Estelle, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., superintendent of the department of anti-narcotics.

The annual address of Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, state president, will be delivered at the banquet tonight, a departure from former years.

The prize to be awarded in the membership campaign will be an enlarged picture of Mrs. Anderson who served president for twenty-seven years of the thirty-one that the North Dakota branch has existed.

KU KLUX KLAN LEADERS RESIGN VICE CHARGE MADE

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 22.—Imperial Kleagle Edward Young Clarke of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, chief of the women's division of the Klan, today announced that they had separately tendered their resignations to Imperial Wizard William J. Simmons, to take effect whenever he thought their resignations were for the good of the order.

Imperial Kleagle Clarke, who was in charge of the Klan's publicity department, was declared by Imperial Wizard Simmons to be one of the most valuable aids. Mrs. Tyler was an associate of Imperial Kleagle in the publicity department until Imperial Wizard Simmons drafted her and made her chief of the newly created women's division.

Resignation Follows Vice Charge
Imperial Wizard Simmons today said he had received their proffers and that he had them under consideration, but that he would take no action until he had thoroughly investigated the charges made against the two.

It was charged—and the charge has been repeated in an Atlanta paper—that police records show Mr. Clarke had been found by officers at midnight at the home of Mrs. Tyler, that the two had been arrested, that the next morning they had been fined $5 each.

A bottle of whiskey had been found in the house, but this was claimed by another person and the two defendants were absolved from blame for its presence.

Was Ill, Says Clarke

Mr. Clarke explained this statement, according to an interview published in Atlanta, by the statement that he had been living in a hotel, had been taken ill and removed to Mrs. Tyler's home to be given the proper treatment there, and that his arrest had been engineered by his wife, who sought to divorce him.

An interesting development of today was the discovery that the police court records in this case have disappeared and that also the records in the Clarke divorce suit are also missing.

Demand was made today on Solicitor General John Boykin to order an investigation by the grand jury of this occurrence. Announcement also was made by Mrs. Tyler that she had discharged a Donald Bate, of Newark, N. J., a district kleagle who had demanded the discharge of Clarke and Mrs. Tyler, while Colonel Simmons stated that he had not definitely decided on Bate's case.
